

4 February 1963

Mr. Hobart Lewis
Executive Editor
READER'S DIGEST
Pleasantville, New York

Dear Mr. Lewis:

Thank you for your letter of 1 February 1963 and the kind things you have to say regarding the week end, which was made pleasant by the courtesies of you and your colleagues. I enjoyed meeting you and Messrs. Daniel, Hubbell, and Jones, and of course seeing my old-time friends Chuck Stevenson and Ken Gilmore.

I think you handled the matter in a fair and, I must say, a calm and most cooperative manner. My congratulations.

Sincerely,

/S/ S. J. Grogan

Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director

THE READER'S DIGEST
PUBLISHED MONTHLY

February 1, 1963

Dear Colonel Grogan:

Now that the smoke of battle has cleared, I want to thank you for the time and patience you displayed last weekend. There is no doubt that the book presents a clearer and fairer picture as a result of your efforts, and I am only sorry that it had to be a crash program and that it interrupted what might otherwise have been a quiet Sunday.

With renewed thanks and warm regards,

Sincerely yours,

Colonel Stanley Grogan
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.